Graphic Design

About the Program

Students in Graphic Design are introduced to the world of visual communication principles and visual presentation aspects of Web pages, including page layout, typography, color theory, navigation, and image creation and editing. Students will apply principle of design through various projects utilizing Adobe CC. Through this program, student have the opportunity to gain certification in Adobe, which enables students to begin working in the industry.

Course Sequence

- Principles of Arts, A/V, Communication, and Technology
- Graphic Design I
- Graphic Design II
- Dual Credit Graphic Design
- Video Game Design

Career Opportunities

- Multimedia Designer
- Web Designer
- Logo Designer
- Brand Identity Designer
- Flash Designer
- Creative Art Director
- Photo Editing/Photoshop Artist
- Layout Artist