

Education & Training Program

About the Program

This program offers courses to prepare students for career paths in various careers that work with children and families. Students learn about basic nutrition and how to read and prepare different recipes. Skills learned strengthen the ability to provide healthy life choices for the developing child to promote positive life-style choices. The classes also teach students to develop effective and functional relationships with children, parents, and colleagues to promote a healthy environment.

Course Sequence

- Lifetime Nutrition & Wellness
- Child Development
- Interpersonal Studies
- Instructional Practices
- Practicum of Education

Career Opportunities

- Elementary Teacher
- Teacher Assistant
- Day Care Worker
- Pediatrician Office Care
- Consumer Services
- Counseling and Mental Health Services
- Early Childhood Development & Services
- Family and Community Services

